TRANSFORMING THE WORLD
OF NONWOVENS

BONDING THE WHOLE NONWOVEN ECOSYSTEM

The nonwoven industry is exploding with growth and opportunity. Now more than ever, innovative, scalable, and flexible solutions are needed to face issues never seen before and have become indispensable in today's world, transforming our quality of life.

ITMA 2023 fuses together the entire textile ecosystem and bonds it together through dynamic collaborations, robust discussions, live machinery demonstrations, and innovation forums.

V-Lap has been exhibiting regularly at ITMA and the 2019 edition was above expectations. Business deals were concluded at the show. The quality and frequency of the visitors were excellent. We would highly recommend companies to participate.
